Dedication

Through the developments of the last few years, the world has become one vast community. We must all adjust our feelings and our understandings to global living. Since understanding is based on knowledge, the hope for a lasting peace rests with the schools, teachers, and teenage students of every nation. To them we dedicate

ADMINISTRATOR

Dear Bob,

It has been swell knowing you these last few years of Grade School and High School.

Here's wishing you buckets, barrels and tons of luck in the near future.

See you around Next Year.

A. E. McDERMID, SUPERINTENDENT

Every student in High School should stop to consider if he or she is making the most worthwhile use of his chances for an education—an education in a democratic country. Nowhere on the earth today can this be gained so cheaply or with such little effort on the part of the individual. It should be the goal of each student in this school to strengthen democracy by getting the broadest education possible. In this way perhaps some day we shall realize the goal of a United World. This can only be achieved through the education and cooperative understanding of all peoples working together for peace and good will among men.

— A. E. McDERMID

Reorganization

This school year, 1948-49, will be remembered as one of reorganization and new opportunities. A change always involves debate, but when that change means benefits for the majority, its needs must be accepted by all as a new link in our chain of democratic living.

The newly organized Class A School District No. 413 includes Maroa, Washington, Poplar Hill, Elmwood, Filer, Berger, Hollister, Amsterdam, Rogerson and parts of Cedar Draw, Union, Syringa, and Park Lane, totaling 709 grade and 251 high school students. It covers almost half of Twin Falls County, and is evaluated at $5,209,498.

The purpose of reorganization is to make larger and better schools for less money.

Taxation will be lower in all parts of the new district excepting Washington and Cedar Draw. There will be an equalization of the tax burden which will "put the money where the children are." Rich districts with few children but high in valuation and thus in taxation, object to educating children of parents who contribute little or nothing to schools because they are exempted by low valuation. Equalization will distribute the cost.

THERE ARE MANY BENEFITS FROM THE NEW PROGRAM.
SOME HAVE BEEN FELT ALREADY:

- ★ ★

 1. Two schools have been re-wired. (Fire hazards had existed.)
 2. The hot-lunch program was extended.
 3. Two schools have been completely re-decorated.
 4. Through buying and using cooperatively, financial savings have been made. Buying a large amount of supplies for the district results in a larger discount. Large equipment can be passed around instead of being rented or bought by separate schools.
 5. Gains have already been made by students in athletics, science, and music. Well-equipped departments naturally give opportunities for more students.

E. M. RAYBORN

Our reorganization has been a step forward to meet the ever changing needs, and will act as a challenge for alertness and efficiency.

E. M. Rayborn is Chairman of the school board of the new district. Other members of the board are R. W. Pierce, Vice-Chairman, Howard Tegan, George McGregor, and A. E. Kunkel.

Faculty

One of the most important jobs facing today's high school teachers is to create in all pupils a desire to grow up into good citizens — good citizens in the school, in the community, in the nation and in the world. It is easy to teach the responsibility for helping to solve the problems of our own immediate environment—or even the problems of the nation as a whole, but much more difficult to teach the broader responsibility of world citizenship.

Because today's teachers are more world-conscious, their students are experiencing a keener awareness of desperate situations the world over. Today teachers must turn out pupils who are inspired to do their best in ridding the world of the animosities engendered by the war and in trying to cement together with generosity and service the far-flung fragments of a broken globe.

If we as teachers are unfaltering in our task, we shall prove ourselves worthy of the privilege and the responsibility of teaching democratic citizenship in a world which is struggling for peace, comfort and security.

Class of '49

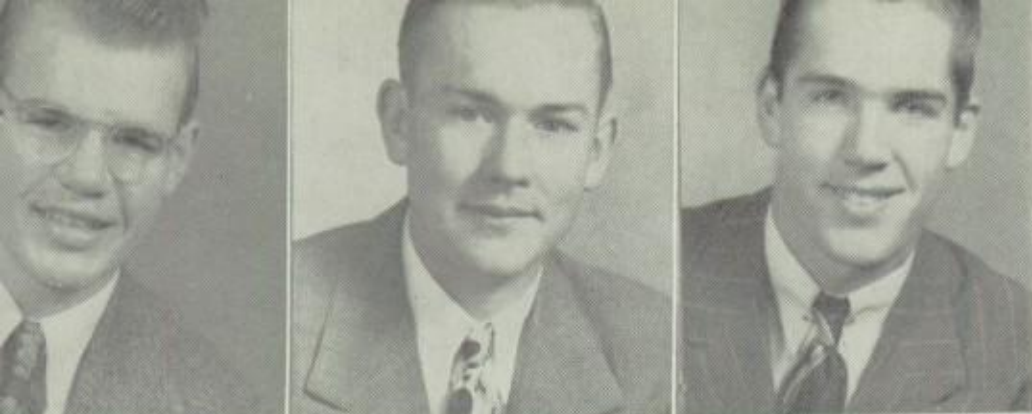

In the fall of 1945 a group of seventy freshmen entered the doors of Filer High School. This group was not the ordinary run-of-the-mill type of freshman. Though they were green they were by no means over-awed. The achievements of their first year gave promise for future success.

They came back the next year more ambitious—and wiser. With girls in the Pep Club and boys on the athletic team they completed a successful season.

During their junior year they held a successful prom, banquet, and carnival. They distinguished themselves in sports and dramatics and had everyone saying that next year should be their year!

It was! They really “set the world on fire!” With the consolidation with Hollister they had a rock-rolling football team which wound up at the top of the Big Seven Conference. Out of the original seventy freshmen only forty-eight are left. As these halls echo their last farewell they will go on to new conquests in life.

Senior Class Will

We, the senior class of Filer High School, being sound in mind, body, and spirit, do will and bequeath to "Mac," Mr. Boyd, our teachers, and our sponsors our best wishes, deepest appreciation and sincere thanks for all the help given us.

To the juniors we leave all our extra credits and our front seats in assemblies.
To the sophomores we will all our extra virtues to make them conceited juniors.
To the freshmen we leave all our worn-out whistles, chewed bubble gum, broken rubber bands.

We will our personal property as follows:

- I, Wesley Anderson, do will and bequeath my blond hair to "Mac."
- I, Everett Andrews, do will and bequeath my basketball playing ability to Fred Lancaster.
- I, Gary Bean, do will and bequeath my ability to get married before finishing school to Dale Bringham.
- I, Margaret Ann Beem, do will and bequeath my bashfulness to Gerita Nuzman.
- I, Bill Blass, do will and bequeath my ability to get along without an English notebook all year long to Helen Prough.
- I, Keith Burgess, do will and bequeath my singing ability to Chuck Allen.
- I, Theron Brown, do will and bequeath my shyness around girls to Charles Daniels.
- I, Kay Caudle, do will and bequeath my long nose to Ramona Tiffany.
- I, Dale Childers, do will and bequeath my parking spot at the cemetery to Eunice Andrews and Joe Miller.
- I, Clive Courtney, do will and bequeath my height and good will toward man to Jim Kunkel.
- I, Isabelle Courtney, do will and bequeath my basketball ability to Filer Vartisy team.
- I, Lula Mae Dierker, do will and bequeath my ability to play the oboe to the next person who tackles the instrument.
- I, Marjy Drake, do will and bequeath my ability to stick to one man to Barbara Bean.
- I, Cloyce Edwards, do will and bequeath my band uniform to Martha Kunkel, hoping that she fills into it.
- I, Barry Flenniken, do will and bequeath my pool cue and bottle opener to Bob Rayborn.
- I, Maurice Graves, do will and bequeath my English book to any Junior who wants to get the wrong answers.
- I, Fred Hainline, leave—without a word.
- I, Warren Hart, do will and bequeath my old red cow to "Slug" Allison.
- I, Helen Ruth Hill, do will and bequeath my office and all its contents to Della Ann Scott for safe keeping and loving care.
- I, Laurence Holler, do will and bequeath my car to anyone who is willing to trade a Buick for it.
- I, Lou Ann Holtzen, do will and bequeath my natural beauty to Donna Lee Leeper.
- I, Dean Hurd, do will and bequeath my title as the "Contact Kid" to Jack Pierce.
- I, Dale Jasper, do will and bequeath my road map of Nevada to Larry Sackett.
- I, Eddie Johnson, do will and bequeath my trick knee to Barbara Lee Smith. (In the hope of shorter skirts; then maybe she can get a man.)
- I, Willard Kimerling, do will and bequeath my Shakespearean acting ability to Harris Brown.
- I, Jean Kistler, do will and bequeath my shorthand and typing ability to Dorothy Peterson.
- I, Verle Knauss, do will and bequeath my ability to "wow" the Junior girls to Sylvan Miller.
- I, Bennie Knodel, do will and bequeath my car to anyone who wants an excuse to stay home.
- I, Robert Kulick, do will and bequeath my strong physique to Gary Allison.
- I, Mary Kunkel, do will and bequeath my friendly manner to Byron Thomas.
- I, Elmer Lampe, do will and bequeath my quietness in class to Ann Reed.
- I, Dave Lancaster, do will and bequeath my stinginess to Marlene Montgomery.
- I, Deloris Lancaster, do will and bequeath my title of being a spoiled little brat to Donna Lee Davis.
- I, Imogene Lassiter, do will and bequeath my nickname, "Pocahontas" to Gloria Sackett.
- I, Howard Mills, do will and bequeath my curly hair and pool-playing ability to (Romeo) Evan Fullmer.
- I, Betty Moore, do will and bequeath my quietness to Nancy Shelton.
- I, Gladys Persigehl, do will and bequeath my hearty laughter to Ella Sayre.
- I, Ruth Ann Robison, do will and bequeath my special ability of talking in Ed Simpson's study hall to anyone who can get by with it.
- I, Donald Ryan, do will and bequeath my French dialect to Keith Fullmer, since he doesn't already need it.
- I, Pat Ryan, do will and bequeath my giggle to Ethel Jasper.
- I, Lotus Joy Schmucker, do will and bequeath to Hank my ability for opening the study hall doors on time in the morning.
- I, Nadine Skinner, do will and bequeath my blond hair to Jan Quillian. (Although, she may have to use peroxide).
- I, Dora Jeanne Stutzman, do will and bequeath my ambitious stride to Clyda Edwards.
- I, Marvin Ulrich, do will and bequeath Nettie Adams to Charles Crawford.
- I, Oscar Vickers, do will and bequeath my physics book to Arlen Harger.
- I, Curtis Wilkins, do will and bequeath my height to Jo Brazie.
- I, Mildred Winkle, do will and bequeath my slim waistline to Barbara Bean.

★ Senior Class Prophecy

One snowbound night as I lay dreaming, I found myself on the steps of Filer High School. I looked upward and cried, "Oh, Magic Carpet, come to me and bear me into the future, that I may see what is in store for the Class of '49."

On the carpet I was borne to a far distant land and landed in front of the screen of the future in the Great Hall of the Distant Years.

The first scene took me to Moscow where Bill Blass and Dale Jasper were being approached by talent scouts from Notre Dame. Betty Moore was the best athlete there, but Marvin Ulrich was running her a close second. Dean Hurd was majoring in moonshining and minoring in the art of becoming a first-class bookie. Willard Kimerling had been voted by his classmates as "The Boy Most Likely to? ? ?" The beautiful homecoming queen for the year was Pat Ryan. Lotus Joy Schmucker had become the most capable librarian the college ever had.

As the scene shifted I caught a glimpse of the President's (Don Ryan) secretary, Jean Kistler, taking dictation on her boss's knee.

In Salt Lake City Lula Mae Dierker, was secretary to a handsome doctor; they were soon to be married. Isabelle Courtney, head nurse at the hospital, was having a hard time keeping the male patients from chasing her.

As the years passed by before me I was taken to New York City where Spike Jones and his City Slickers with their new hot clarinet player, Cloyce Edwards, were having a guest engagement. Upon their music racks lay new and better arrangements by Marv Kunkel. In another part of the city I saw Curt Wilkins, man about town, with his side-kick, Fred Hainline still—but not successfully—making passes at the women, seated at a table in the Stock Club listening to singer Marjy Drake. Joining them at the table were Eddie Johnson, Nature Boy II, with his famous long hair, Wesley Anderson, fashion designer from Paris, Verle Knauss, world's best designer of children's clothes, and Barry Flenniken, Curry, Idaho's football coach. They were just in time to see Gypsy Rose Lee turn over her crown as strip tease queen to Barry's wife, Goldie Ruth Hill. Seated nearby at another table was Imogene Lassiter, with her world-famous artist husband. Outside the club I discovered Bennie Knodel, Broadway electrician, Oscar Vickers, radio commercial wizard, and Patty Schnitker, comedian, seated in Bennie's Cadillac.

As the scene was again changing before me, I caught a fleeting glimpse of Robert Kulick, world's weight-lifting champion, and Mildred Winkle still trying to join the Northwest Mounted Police. (They always get their man.)

In Hollywood I saw Elmer Lampe signing a contract to play the lead in the movie, "Fudd," and the secretary to Red Skelton in the arms of Larry Sackett, promising with tear-filled eyes to return to Filer and become just plain Dora Jeanne Sackett, farmer's wife.

The next scene took me to Jerome, Idaho, where I saw Lou Ann Holtzen and Gladys Persigehl, both prominent members of the Northside Social Club, raising children and chickens.

It was Thursday night when I dropped in at the Rythm Roller Rink in Twin Falls and saw the proprietor, Dale Childers, teaching his five children how to skate. With him were Mr. and Mrs. Vern Stokesberry with their twins, Robison and Ruth Ann.

Then a familiar scene appeared on the screen. I was back at Filer High Schol. The music department had been taken over by Margaret Ann Beem, and Coach Theron Brown's basketball team had just won the state championship trophy. A celebration for them was being prepared by Chief-of-Police Keith Burgess, Mayor Russell Nelson, and Mayor Clive Courtney of Hollister. Nadine Skinner, by answering the radio mystery programs had become the richest old maid in Filer and had purchased a home on Yakima where Laurence Holler was spending much of his time digging for gold. Maurice Graves had purchased the Dean Johnson Service and specialized in repairs for the High Schol crowd.

At the farm of Mr. and Mrs. Gary Bean, a potluck diner was being held. Mr. and Mrs. Dave Lancaster, and the newlyweds, Mr. and Mrs. Everett Andrews (Kay Caudle), Mr. and Mrs. Warren Hart, Mr. and Mrs. Howard Mills (Deloris Lancaster), were present. The men were outside with the 26 children (eight Harts, seven Beans, six Mills, and five Lancasters), while the women talked of: Warren's herd of two cows ;Howard, a grease monkey at the airport, having to fly the doctor through a storm to beat the stork; and Dave finally giving his wife a little spending money. Everett, a retired engineer, to keep from being bored had accepted a contract to build a bridge across the canal, connecting two cow pastures.

The screen of the future dimmed and unfamiliar faces appeared. They were the children, the grandchildren, and great grandchildren of my classmates. Some were in positions of power, others were wealthy and famous; still others were common folk with happy, ordinary lives.

I turned away, stepped upon the magic carpet and was whisked back to my cozy bed.

Class of '50

In the fall of 1946, fifty-seven Freshmen entered Filer High School.

The freshmen took part in most of the activities. Several successful parties were held with the help of the Advisers, Mrs. Powell and Mr. Boyd.

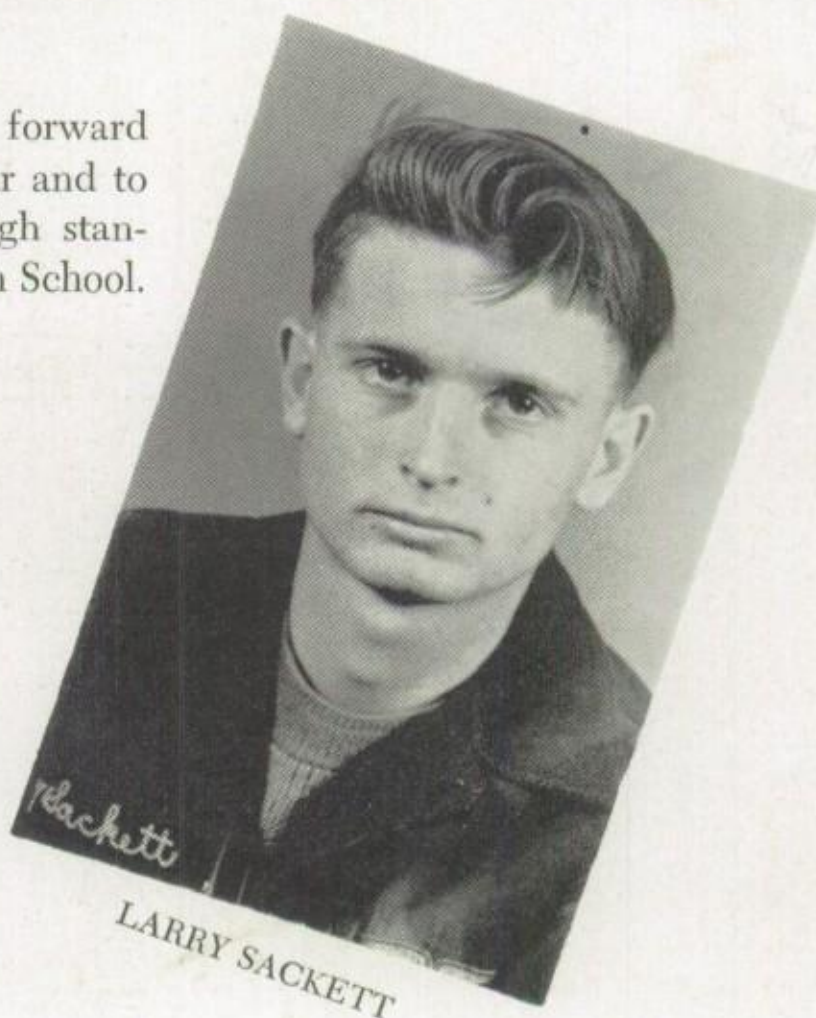

In their sophomore year fewer students came back, but this did not keep them from taking an active part in the school. In the school tradition they decorated the Christmas tree, and decorated the gym for the Baccalaureate and Commencement. Their advisers were Mrs. Warberg and Mr. Williamson.

In their junior year they had back nearly the original number of students because of new students from Hollister. This year they really did take a major part in things. Their carnival was held on December 1 with their candidates, Carole Brazie and Charles Daniels, being elected king and queen of the carnival.

JERRY DUNLAP

They are looking forward to their Senior year and to holding up the high standards of Filer High School.

Class of '52

On September 1, 1948, seventy freshmen entered Filer High School. One of the outstanding events of the year was the freshman initiation. The boys wearing skirts and the girls wearing overalls were extremely funny.

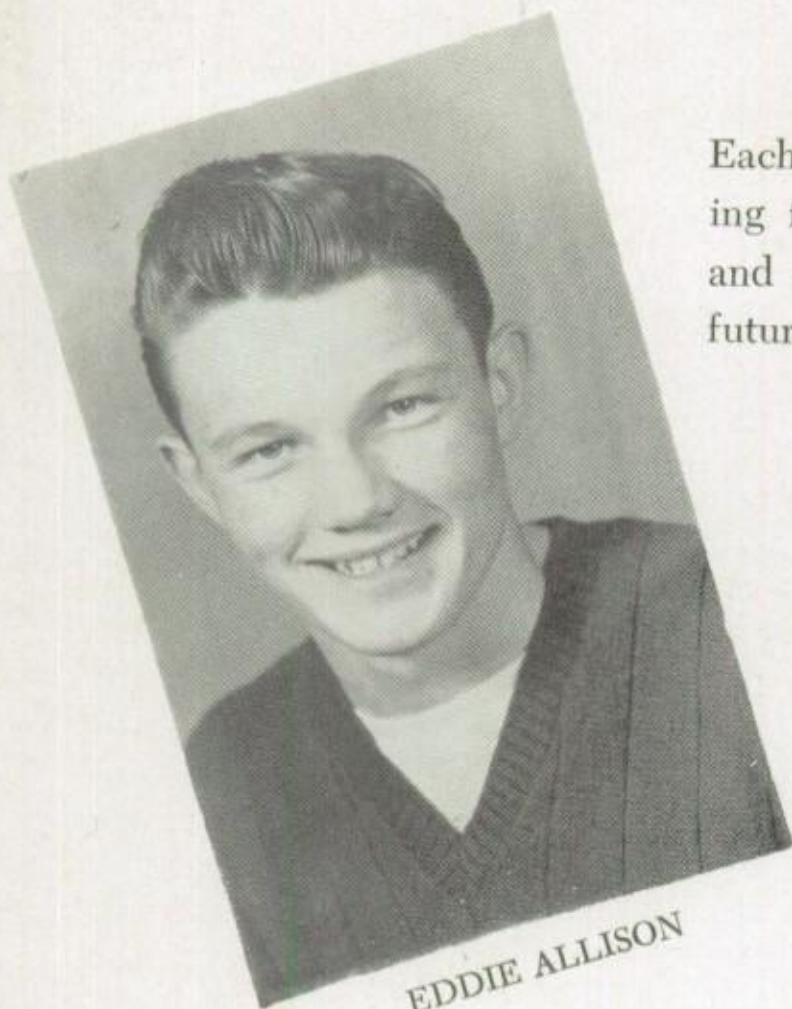

The roller skating party held during the first semester was very successful with the help of the sponsors, Mrs. Grubb and Mrs. Flenniken.

With money from the class treasury they bought the large Christmas tree for the school.

Several of the freshmen boys went out for sports. One of the boys made his letter on the varsity football team. They are now playing basketball with the Junior Varsity winning almost every game.

Their candidates for the king and queen of the Junior Carnival were Joe Miller and Eunice Andrews. They were crowned Prince and Princess.

EDDIE ALLISON

Each class member is looking forward to next year, and making plans for the future.

"With Love, Judy" . . .

Light heartedly she signed her picture for a friend and gathered up her books, so glad that school should end and languid summer months lay temptingly ahead.

But summer was a laggard
so when strawberries were red and summer rains were soft and cool as tears upon the cheeks of those she told good-bye, she gathered up her smiles and went away
on a long and unexpected holiday.

She did not come to school this fall . . .
she lingers yet
in that eternal summertime above.
Another occupies her place but classmates all remember Judy . . . "with love."

ACTIVITIES

The annual staff wishes to thank all who cooperated in the production of this book. In spite of a late start and snowy roads we hope it contains the things which in later years may recall to mind the good times enjoyed at Filer High School. May it renew for you the worthy ambitions and vows you made to make this world a better place in which to live.

Yours sincerely,

Girls' League

The Girls' League was organized in the fall of 1947 and has flourished since then. Every girl in Filer High School automatically belongs to it.

It was organized to promote a general feeling of democracy in the school and to bring a sense of loyalty, friendliness, and cooperation among the girls.

Highlights of the year to date of publication of this annual are a welcome party for the new girls, a special Thanksgiving program and offering, and the Alice in Wonderland Ball. Other activities to be held are a hobby show, the Sadie Hawkins dance, and a Mother-Daughter tea.

Mrs. Warberg is the capable sponsor for the Girls' League.

This year under the sponsorship of Coach "Mack" Flenniken the "F" Club has been very successful. Our constitution has been rewritten and greatly improved by "Mack" and Warren Hart.

We have over thirty members in our "F" Club this year. The lettermen from Hollister were automatically admitted to the "F" Club, which has helped us considerably.

The Pep Club

The Pep Club is one of the most active organizations in Filer High School. Being a service organization, the club has as its aim furthering the interests of the whole school.

The Pep Club is composed of 42 members, each of whom is elected for having attended and yelled at the games. Emblems are bought by the club and are given to the Seniors on graduation.

Early in the year the old members gave the new members a pot-luck supper and went from there to the Rupert-Filer football game. As this annual goes to press plans are underway for a party in the Home Economics room given by new members for the old members.

The activities of the club include yelling at the games, making programs to pass out to the spectators, planning and putting on Pep Assemblies, sponsoring buses to out-of-town games, and drills and stunts between the halves of games.

Mrs. Grubb is the capable sponsor of the organization.

The Junior Rifle Club

In the winter of 1946 and 1947, with no place to go to have a good time after school hours, a few of the Filer High School students, interested in shooting decided to organize a rifle club.

The work of the club is useful and interesting. A person may win high honors in marksmanship in any year of high school. The size, age or ability of the person does not count — it is plain, cool nerve, and girls as well as boys enjoy the sport.

The purpose of the organization is to teach young people how to handle the rifle accurately and to have fun in safe shooting. Only high school students are admitted to the club in this community. The club meets on Tuesday and Wednesday nights in the basement of the Musgrave building, and this permits all members use of the range.

The Filer Junior Rifle Club has fired three inter-team matches this year with Twin Falls, Gooding and Burley, and won all three matches. They also fired the Army Indoor Rifle Course.

There are 35 students in the club — about 20 boys and 15 girls. Among these there are 20 marksmen and about 15 sharpshooters. The boys firing the army Indoor Rifle Course made seven marksmen ratings, three sharpshooters and one expert rating.

Mr. Williamson is the sponsor of the club.

Music

The Filer High School music department has a record for the past three years that is something to be proud of. The band received three first division ratings and the chorus one first and one second. Our soloists and small ensembles have placed in the upper division at all festivals.

The band, chorus, and other music groups have participated in many civic functions during the school year and the band has been chosen to play for the Buhl Rodeo for the past two years.

Filer High School is indebted to Mr. Boyd for the time and patience he has expended in the creation of a fine music department.

Speech and Drama

ETHEL S. WARBERG, DIRECTOR OF SPEECH AND DRAMA

The difficulty of producing a "winning team" is not alone the job of the athletic coach. The dramatics coach of each school also faces this same problem when the speech festival rolls around.

Our Mrs. Warberg carries this load along with being adviser to a successful Girls' League, sponsor of the Senior Class and Thespians, and adviser for this annual. She has in the past produced more successful plays than the average dramatic coach. She has an enviable record at speech festivals with her students from Filer High. As this annual goes to press we need not expect less for 1949.

She is a graduate of Linfield College and a tireless student of life; keeping a fresh and vibrant outlook by keeping constantly in touch with the pulse of hopeful living.

Thespian Troupe 444

The aim of the National Thespian Dramatic Honor Society is to "create a spirit of active and intelligent interest in dramatics" among high school students.

The Society, which is non-secret and non-social, is also actively interested in furthering dramatics as an integral part of the educational process in the high schools of America.

In order to encourage students to continue their work in dramatics after they become Thespians, a point system has been adopted by the local troupe. Ten points entitle a student to membership; a Thespian has earned twenty points; a Thespian thirty, and an Honor Thespian forty points.

Dramatic Department

One of the most interesting projects of the dramatic department was a six-weeks' study of Shakespeare. As a part of this project a model Globe Theater was constructed and dolls were dressed to represent characters in Hamlet and Macbeth. The drama students were guests at a private showing of the Orson Welles picture, Macbeth, at the Roxy theatre.

Another group of drama students journeyed to Salt Lake City to see Judith Anderson in "Medea." This trip was an interesting and worthwhile climax to a six-weeks study of the History of Drama and the early Greek Theatre.

As this annual goes to press Filer students are planning to participate in all possible declamation events. The Norman Corwin radio play, "Odyssey of Runion Jones," and a fantasy, "Three Pills in a Bottle," will be two of the major entries.

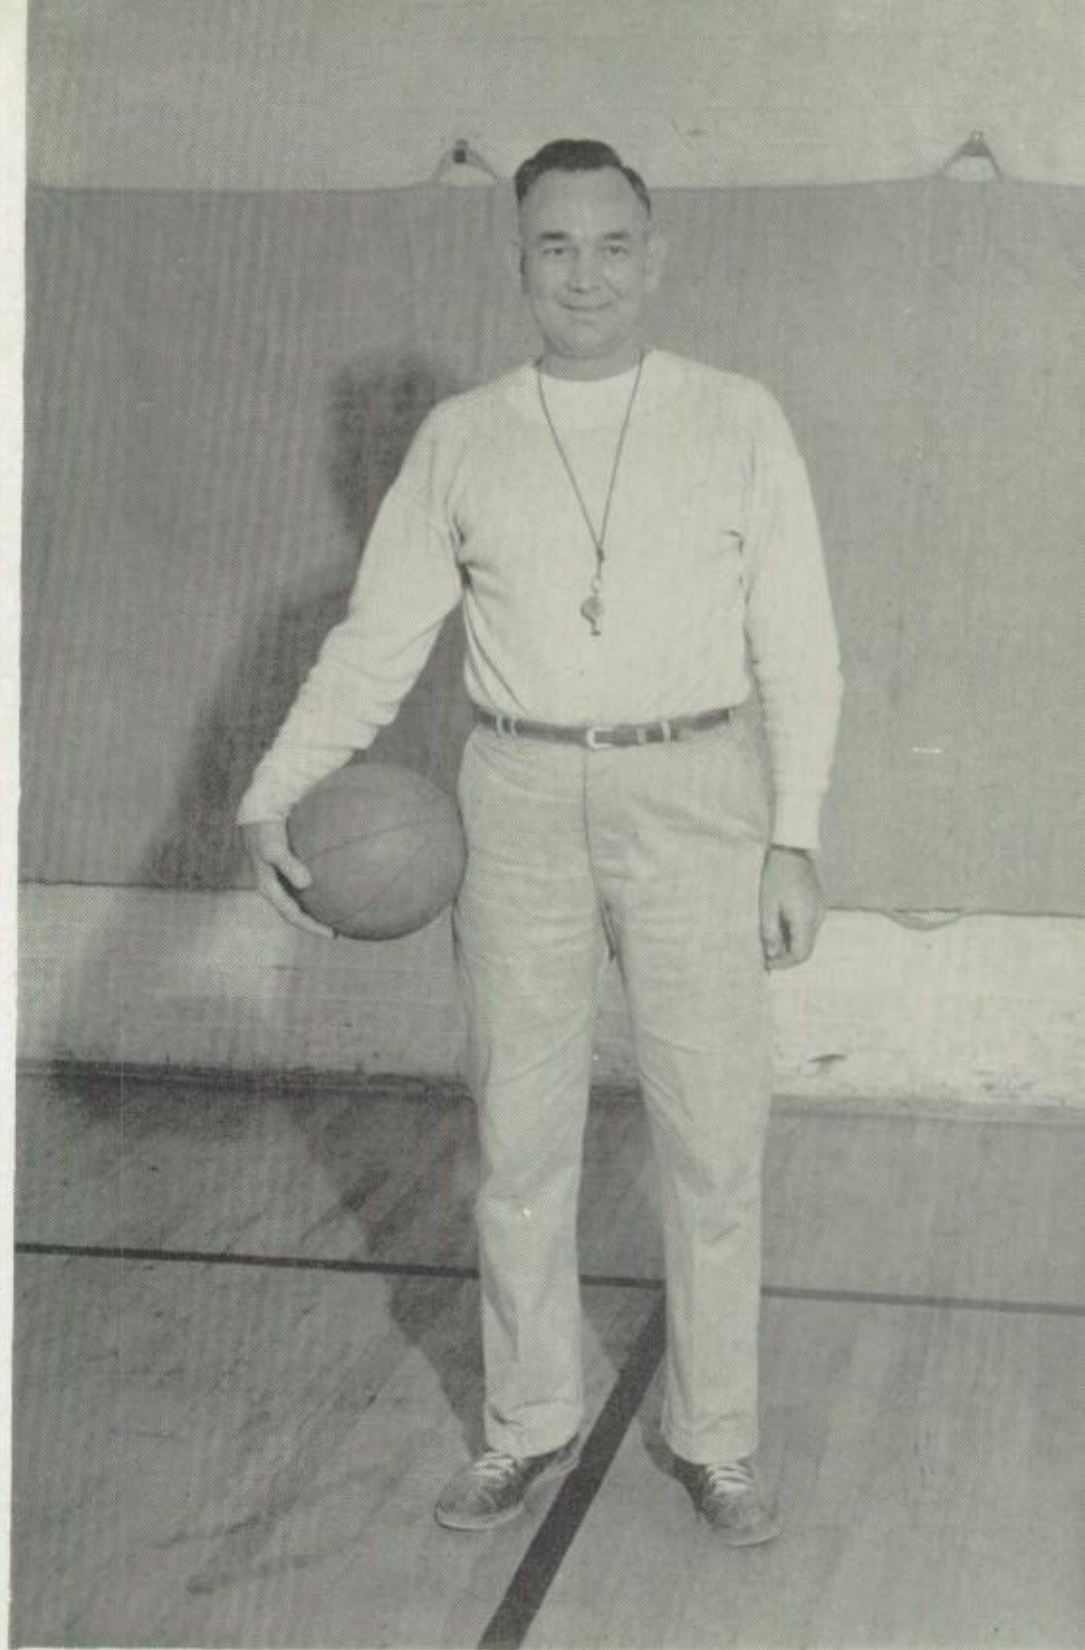

SPORTS

Three things go to make up a successful team:

The material, the school spirit, and the coach. Although the coach is mentioned last he is by no means the least important of the three. Rather, he is fully as important as any of them, because the best of material without good coaching cannot do as well as average or poor material with good coaching, and the spirit manifested by the team is but a reflection of the spirit shown by the coach.

Coach "Mack" Flenniken has been at Filer High only one year, but already everyone has come to respect his ability and leadership. The football season ended with the Filer Wildcats at the top of the Big Seven Conference.

"MACK" FLENNIKEN, COACH

Although the Wildcat hoopsters did not win all their games, the fact that the team kept its fighting spirit throughout the season shows that Coach "Mack" knows his business and that we can hope for a splendid team next season.

Flenniken played football under Bo McMillin at Centenary College, Shreveport, Louisiana in 1924 and also under him at Geneva College for three years. While he was at Geneva, they defeated Harvard and Boston College. He received honorable mention as fullback on the Associated Press All-American team in 1927. He graduated from Texas Christian University, Fort Worth, Texas. He played professional football in 1930-31 with the Chicago Cardinals and the New York Giants. He was head coach at Arlington Heights High School, Fort Worth, Texas, eight years before entering the service. He served five years in the Army Air Force.

Everyone has expressed extreme satisfaction over the way "Mack" has handled the athletic department during the past year and expects great things from him in seasons to come.

ASSISTANT COACH

They say that dynamite comes in small packages and that is the best description we can give for "Mack" Flenniken's little handiman, Gene Hull.

After attending three colleges and completing four years in the service, Gene is back in school again, this time as a teacher.

Gene's "hustling" teams are among the best. He produced a winning football team with hardly enough boys to make even one team. He also built one of the "hottest" Junior varsity teams in the Big Seven Conference.

We here give him credit for being one of the finest. His ever-cheerful personality has helped many times when the morale was low.

Football

The Filer Wildcats with their new coach took to the field for the first time on August 20, to prepare for their opening game with the Buhl Indians September 10.

The Wildcats fell before a strong Buhl team, 19-6 in its opener.

On the next Friday, September 17, the Wildcats came back strong and rolled over Rupert, 39-16. Gooding was next on the list and Filer never blinked an eye as they marched to a 39-13 victory over the Senators. October 1 proved to be an unlucky day for the Oakley Hornets as the Wildcats showed no mercy in their 31-6 triumph.

Much preparation went into the next week's work for the Jerome Tigers who held first place in the standings. This was to be Filer's real test, and the Wildcats showed their stuff that night on October 8 by playing probably their best game of the season and winning a decisive 25-0 victory.

The Wildcats took a week off and then on October 23 they traveled to Ely, Nevada to mark up their fifth straight victory over a strong White Pine team by a score of 13-0.

The FILER GIANT KILLERS moved to Preston the next week to add still another victory to their list by downing the Preston boys 14-12.

The Wildcats gave their loyal followers a real scare November 5, but brought home a 15-13 victory over the Burley Bobcats and a Big Seven Championship.

VARSITY

Filer's basketball season could not be classified as a successful one, but with a new coach and a new system they showed improvement as the season went along. A definite program has been installed to build basketball at Filer and in the next few years Filer should win her share of victories. There are some very fine prospects coming along in Eddie Allison, Gary Allison, Myrl Schroeder, Don Williamson, Byron Thomas, Eddie Brown, Duane Sharp, Albert Larsen, Evan Fullmer, and Larry Creasey, all from the Junior Varsity. With Bob Rayborn and Keith Fullmer back from this year's team we are expecting great things from the team next year.

Junior Varsity

The record of Gene Hull's hustling little Junior Varsity is one of which the whole school can be proud. The freshmen and sophomores of the present Junior Varsity will be the Varsity of the next two years, and from present indications we have every reason to believe that we have a running start toward a good Varsity basketball squad for next year. The punishment they have taken from this year's Varsity in practice has gone a long way toward developing their basketball ability.

As this annual goes to press plans are being made for the Junior Varsity Tournament to be held in the Filer gym March 7, 8, 9, 10 and 11.

Baseball PREDICTIONS FOR '49

As the Annual goes to press the District baseball schedule has not been made but looking over the prospects of this year it looks as if Filer will have a very strong team and definitely be a championship contender. There are a few spots on the team that are wide open for the new boys, mainly left and right field, and the catching. Bill Warberg will be a strong contender for catching assignment and if he comes through satisfactorily Filer will have a team that will be hard to beat. The main candidates for other positions will be Theron Brown who should be our starting pitcher if he can develop a little more speed because he has plenty of stuff on the ball, and Dale Bringham, a holdover from last year's team, who should be greatly improved this year. Lawrence Holler, another letterman, will be back as a pitcher. Howard Mills should hold down the first base assignment and may see quite a bit of pitching duties. Gary Allison, returning letterman, will be converted over from a catcher to second base which should strengthen that position. Eddie Allison, a promising Freshman, is expected to play a lot of shortstop this year. Barry Flenniken, letterman from Jerome, should divide his duties at third base and pitching. Keith Fullmer, letterman from Hollister, will probably alternate with Flenniken at the third base and pitching assignments. Gary Bean, letterman, and a power at the bat will officially hold down the center field position. Other lettermen and freshmen who will be battling for the outfield berths and the strengthening of other positions will be Bob Rayborn, Jerry Williamson, Don Williamson, Charles Allen, Bob Allen, Ray Neale, Merlin Neale, Elmer Lampe, Warren Hart, Lester Peterson, Dale Jasper, Bill Blass, Pat Patterson, Wesley Anderson, Marvin Ulrich, Gene Shiffler and Jerry Dunlap.

"MACK" FLENNIKEN

Standing: "Mack" Flenniken, Norma Williamson, Jan Martin, Jan Carder, Elaine Richmond, Mary Jasper, Marlene Montgomery, June Henstock, Jeanne Taylor, Sybil Verburg, Loyeda Marler, Anna Marie Hess, Gene Hull. Seated: Vivian Lancaster, Gloria Crandall, Betty Moore, Patty Schnitker, Christine Moore, Maxine Finney, Gloria Sackett.

Girls' P. E.

In keeping with a state-wide program to encourage and develop physical fitness, gym classes are offered for girls as well as boys and all students are required to take gym.

Shown above is one of the girls' gym classes with Coaches Flenniken and Hull.

Dear Bob,

I really don't know what to say, but I want to wish a really swell kid lots of luck and happiness. I shall always think of you as a very dear and special friend. I am sorry we didn't become better friends but I guess some thing just don't work out. Always remember the swell times we had in algebra, and at the fair. I shall always remember. I want to wish you lots of luck in the future. Always a friend Betty

Dear Bob,

It's been swell knowing you this last two years and I hope we can keep going to school together the next two years
I hope you can play foot ball next year. Wish lots of luck, wealth, and ~~wealth~~ happiness in the future to come, a friend M. A. Becton '51'
